Today on 04/03/2021 a group discussion has taken place in the deptt. of political Science among the Honours students to clear the concept of below mentioned topic. The topic of this group discussion is “scope of International Relations”. On this topic students has exhanged their views among them. All teachers of political Science Deptt. have participated and delivered their valuable lectures on this topic. Finally, head of the deptt. concluded with valuable words and offered thanks to all.